

The Chrysler Product Owners Club

Dear MOPAR Enthusiast:

Whether you own one or not, do you like talking about, showing and working on vehicles from the MOPAR family of automobiles? The Chrysler Product Owners Club (CPOC) offers several unique opportunities and is the only club in the Washington metropolitan area which is dedicated to the preservation and enjoyment of all MOPAR vehicles (antique, classic, modified, etc.) Centering on vehicles produced by Chrysler and its business partners, CPOC includes but are not limited to: Chrysler, Imperial, DeSoto, Dodge, Plymouth, Dodge Trucks, American Motors, & Jeep..

CPOC has approximately 190 members divided among Northern Virginia (90 members), Maryland (90 members), the District of Columbia (10 members) as well as members in several other states (e.g., West Virginia, Delaware, etc.). CPOC currently holds several car shows each year which are free to enter:

1. Warrenton Chrysler (May 16, 2010)
2. Ourisman Chrysler Jeep (June 5, 2010);
3. Manassas Chrysler (June 26, 2010);
4. Rosenthal Chrysler Jeep (September 25, 2010).

In addition, CPOC supports a variety of activities which include a:

1. Monthly newsletter, "The Torsion Bar"; (classified ads are free to members)
2. Active Website - www.cpocdc.org
3. Numerous Shoptalk meetings, where members can perform work on their cars and see how repairs and improvements can be made under the supervision of a skilled professional; and,
4. Other social events (e.g., Annual Picnic, Holiday Lunch, etc.)
